La Paz, Baja Mexico, is consistently rated year after year in many publications as one of the TOP 5 fishing spots in the world!

Tuna, Dorado, Yellowtail, Marlin, Sailfish, Pargo, Cabrilla, Amberjack, Sierra, Bonito, Skipjack, Pompano, Jack Crevalle and world-record Roosterfish among others await your arrival.

Whether you're a veteran or beginner, big game, light tackle or flyfishing angler, you've NEVER seen variety like this! The waters in the Sea of Cortez are often calmer than most lakes, and clear enough to see reefs and game fish 30-50 feet below the boat.

"Took my boys down fishing to La Paz- first time for the 12-year-old. Jonathan did another great job for the whole trip. Made the youngster feel like a long-time friend."

Bienvenidos to La Paz, mis amigos!

Adventure and world-class fishing are closer than you think! Jacques Cousteau called the Sea of Cortez the "Aquarium of the World" with more than 700 species of fish; and with our sunshine...blue waters...white sand...bent rods are only 2 hours south of San Diego near the California border.

We ARE your La Paz fishing connection!

Welcome to Tailhunter International! We are your one-stop provider for the best fishing experience La Paz has to offer! Our comprehensive service includes everything from picking you up at the airport to arranging all your fishing; setting up your lodging; and scheduling activities such as SCUBA diving, snorkeling, whale watching, sightseeing, city tours, and more. Whether you're alone, a large group, small group, family, couple, or business group, we can do it!

La Paz is our home. We know it well. Our skippers aren't part-time summer workers. They fish every day in the same waters they have fished for generations. We can put you into fish as well as show you the best place to see dolphins, buy a taco, go shopping or even catch the best sunset! Your vacation is our top priority. So, kick back, let us handle the details, and let your fishing vacation begin!

Our boats shove off daily.
Climb aboard and hold onto your socks!

"My sons, friends and nephew have been fishing with Tailhunter International for almost 10 years. Each trip has gone smoothly... We are planning to add another day to our next trip."
M. Castellanos

We know our waters!

This is not complicated fishing!

We emphasize ACTION, not long days of trolling!

Most fishing is close to shore for even the largest gamefish species and anglers are never out of sight of land.

Waters are generally calm. In fact, the Sea of Cortez can be calmer than most lakes on some days! Imagine big game fishing where waters are so clear or sometimes so shallow you can even see the bottom or actually see huge schools of fish swimming below the boat before exploding on your bait as they rip yards of line from your reel!

Our fleets fish 2 distinct areas.

Our LAS ARENAS FLEET fishes the northern East Cape— southern Cerralvo Island, Roca Montana, the Dome, the 88 spot, Punta Perrico, Las Arenas Lighthouse, Rock Highway, Muertos Bay and others.

Our LA PAZ FLEET heads for Espiritu Santo Island, Bonanza Beach, Punta Lobos, Isolotes, La Reinita and the legendary El Bajo Seamont!

Most of our fishing is done with dead or live bait. We generally don't use any special lures or rigging. It's THAT simple! Imagine battling the fish of a lifetime, only yards from the beach. This is not complicated fishing—if you can hold a rod, you can fish with us.

Whether you're a salty hard-core angler or new to the experience, this is "stand-up-style" fun fishing. In the hands of our experienced skippers, kids, families, and first-timers can do as well as any seasoned veteran!

OUR FISHING FLEET of PANGAS

Even for the largest gamefish species, we are never out of sight of land and most fishing is incredibly close to shore in relatively calm waters. For generations, fishing from pangas (Mexican skiffs) has been the preferred method to fish these fish-rich waters. Bigger watercraft simply aren't necessary when you're not going far and you are not going to be spending the day trolling rough waters.

However, our pangas are modernized versions of the traditional fishing craft built for comfort and fishing efficiency to insure a great day on the water. Seaworthy to fish open water, but fast enough, quiet enough and small enough to get inshore to areas larger craft can't access where some of the largest fish are waiting!

Las Arenas Deluxe Pangas - For our anglers fishing the Las Arenas/ Muertos Bay Cerralvo Island area - 22-foot fiberglass pangas with new Honda and Mercury motors. Flat decks. Rod holders. Fish boxes. Swivel or Travel Seats. Radios and safety gear. Bimini tops during the hot season. Perfect for the type of close-to-shore stand-up style fishing the area is famous for!

La Paz Super Pangas - Since we often have to cover a bit more water to fish out of La Paz, these 22-24 footers feature inboard console steering with Honda, Mercury and Johnson motors. Live bait wells. Casting bow. Permanent bimini tops. Fish boxes. Rod holders. Radios and safety equipment—the boats that put La Paz on the fishing map!

Fly Fishing

The La Paz area is only now opening up to the immense potential of fly fishing. We fish from specially designed pangas (22-foot Mexican fishing skiffs) which are perfect for a skipper and two anglers—very stable and ideal for working light tackle and fly rods on even the largest Baja bad boys!

These world-class waters can produce anything at anytime... tuna with bad attitudes... exotic roosterfish... acrobatic dorado...even marlin and sailfish!

If you are fly fishing from a panga, this generally involves using sardines as live bait to chum fish to the surface. A simple roll cast into the boiling or finning fish...a bit of stripping and well...better hang on!

Chad Shearer, host of the TV outdoor show, "Shoot Straight TV"

"Every spring I bring a group of 8-12 friends and neighbors, and Jonathan handles everything...I would not even consider another vendor because Jonathan has a knack for making me feel as though we are childhood friends. His service is second to none."
Doug Oclassen—Boulder CO

The La Paz area also has miles of rocky and sandy shoreline, bays, covers, inlets and cliffs for the angler who prefers to cast from shore. Catch roosterfish, jack crevalle, needlefish, sierra, cocineros, pompano and others. Just don't be surprised if you hook a dorado or tuna right from the shoreline. It has been known to happen!

"From the time we stepped out of the airport and boarded the Tailhunter van, we were treated like royalty. Jonathan and Jill go out of their way to make sure each of us were taken care of and were having a great time."
T. Coffey—West Covina CA

Welcome to...

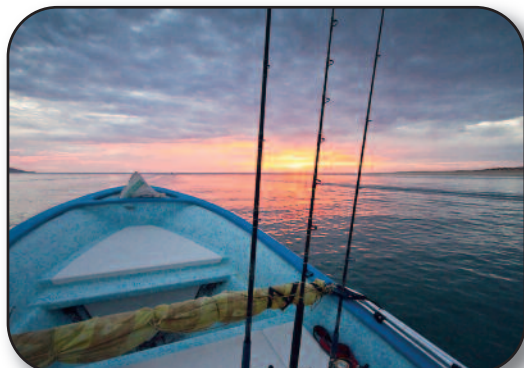

This city of 200,000 friendly residents, nestled on the shores of Southern Baja, is a unique mix of the old and new.

...gateway to the "Sea of Cortez"

The city itself borders the beautiful and tranquil Bay of La Paz, an area rich in history from the first native inhabitants through its days of pirates, Spanish conquistadores and missionaries. It is currently the capital of the state of Southern Baja, the 1000-mile long peninsula jutting south from California and separated from mainland Mexico by the blue waters of the Sea of Cortez. As such, it is the seat of government and is the site of the university, museum and national aquarium as well as the hub for many prominent businesses and cultural activities.

Visitors to the city will be surprised to find that in many ways, La Paz is a modern city with modern amenities but retains much of its old-world charm. Centuries-old cobblestoned streets and narrow alleyways stretch from the busy malecon waterfront back towards the old mission cathedral and the town's central plaza. Taxi cabs are available everywhere, but everything is close! Walking is the way to get around in this part of town and strollers will find charmingly quaint restaurants, sidewalk cafes, shops and musicians along the palm-lined waterfront and nearby streets.

"This was one of the best vacations I have ever been on. Jonathan and Jill took care of everything and their hospitality was amazing."
K. Shipley—Oklahoma City OK

La Paz is served by the modern Manuel Marquez de Leon International Airport only 10 minutes from downtown and easily accessible. Daily flights arrive and depart regularly through several airlines. Most visitors connect to La Paz through Los Angeles,

San Diego or Tijuana which is only 2 hours away by plane. Others fly to the City of Cabo San Lucas 100 miles to the south and then are transported to La Paz.

Don't be in a hurry. Take your time. Much of the city still takes a siesta at mid-day to lunch at one of the many al fresco seafood stands then... coming out in the evenings to catch the Mexican sunset to the sounds of strummed guitars and dining by candlelight or dancing in the warm Mexican evening.

Fishing in La Paz is 4 seasons of FUN!

La Paz is one of the few places in Baja that offers fishing 365 days-a-year. Even during the cooler, windier months of winter, we can still put you on fish. We never have to fish far from shore, even for the largest fish. However, like anywhere else, we have our seasons and fishing changes from season to season just like the climate. Still, most of our fishing remains with live and dead bait, fishing relatively close to shore in our pangas so you get the most time possible spent fishing!

Winter samples

Late November to March, these are our windiest and coolest months. Our fishing is highly dependent on the weather with most of our fishing done out of Muertos Bay. Although early winter can see tuna, wahoo, dorado and billfish still holding over from the warmer months, spectacular inshore fishing is the norm.

Species: Pargo, snapper, sierra, sea bass (cabrilla), bonito, skipjack.

Spring samples

Late March to late June, this is when the waters start to get warmer, but it can still be breezy. This is the time of year when we have the most variety as cold-water fish mix with warmer-water fish. Great inshore fishing with larger gamefish like roosterfish, yellowtail and amberjack starting to make appearances, but big pargo start to school plus a wide variety of jacks and beach fish. As waters get warmer there's now a chance at smaller dorado, marlin, sailfish, wahoo and tuna. Light tackle and flyfishers start to show up in Spring.

Species: Pargo, sierra, snapper, sea bass (cabrilla), bonito, skipjack, jack crevalle, pompano, roosterfish, yellowtail, amberjack, dorado, marlin, sailfish, tuna, wahoo.

Late June to August is prime time for dorado (mahi mahi) as schools start to move in with the warm water. Sunshine and blue skies time. Summer brings our marlin and sailfish into the area offshore. Chance of tuna and wahoo. Inshore, roosterfish are a prime target.

Species: Dorado, sailfish, marlin, wahoo, tuna, bonito, skipjack, snapper, pargo, amberjack.

Late August to November. This is our busiest and most productive time of year and we sell out most dates. Not as hot as summer, but waters stay warm and calm. Small fish have now grown larger. Big bull dorado, big blue and black marlin, striped marlin and sailfish can be caught close to shore. Excellent time for wahoo and tuna. Larger pargo / dog snapper come in. Giant squid are a treat. Roosterfish can be world-record size.

Groceries and Amenities in La Paz?

La Paz is a modern city where you can find pretty much anything from medical and dental facilities to your favorite brand of potato chips or beer. Our city boasts excellent restaurants (Tailhunter Restaurant!) offering the full delicious gamut of culinary enjoyment from Mexican, seafood, Italian, Chinese, Japanese, French and American eateries.

Are tourists, kids, and families safe?

We are well aware that Mexico's problems are splashed all over the daily news. There's no denying the unfortunate situation. But those problems are only in certain cities and mostly in isolated areas. Tourists are not targeted. Baja Mexico has been very isolated from the violence and La Paz, in particular, has been a virtual oasis. Mexico is as large as the U.S. and worrying about violent crime in La Paz is like living in Seattle and worrying about crime in Miami. Here in La Paz we mostly still don't lock our houses and cars. Statistically, U.S. cities have a higher crime rate than La Paz which is very family oriented. People walk the streets and enjoy the city without fear. Police ride bicycles and smile a lot. So do those of us who live here!

What about my fish?

We encourage C.P.R. ("catch, photo, release"), but you're welcome to take home fish within limits or have some cooked up at any restaurant. It's great! Bring a small ice chest and zip lock bags and some duct tape. Your captain will happily clean your fish and it will be frozen for you so you can take it home to enjoy. For a small fee, we will trim, label and vacuum seal your fish.

What if I don't speak Spanish?

No problema, amigo. Many folks speak "Span-glish" which is a great mix of Spanish and English. Universal words such as "please," "thank you" and a smile go a long way.

Can I use U.S. dollars?

U.S. currency is welcome and you need not exchange money before coming. Small bills under $20 are best for everyday use and purchases.

How about the paperwork?

Since January 2007, travelers between the U.S. and Mexico must have a passport.

Can I drink the water?

Bottled water is in abundance everywhere and all major hotels have drinkable tap water and ice.

What about fishing tackle?

Our fishing is not complicated. We will send you a list of suggested items or you can rent some of ours. Keep it simple! Really!

Fish Tales

"We search for adventure not to escape life but to keep life from escaping us. You'll never know what's on the other side until you get there."

After a tremendous day of fishing with friends, those you've known for years and the new ones you've just met, we kick back, share our tales of triumph, and laugh at the "one that got away."

Join us for the fishing experience that will keep you smiling for years to come. Once you've fished with us, you'll be "hooked" forever!
